RECOGNITION TO OUR FALLEN FIREFIGHTER

Firefighters who have lost their lives in the line of duty, have been added to the Honour Roll and their names engraved on plaques at the Firefighters' Memorial Grove in Kings Park.

The memorial service was held to close to International Firefighters' Day, which occurs on the 4 May each year and coincides with the feast of St. Florian, the patron saint of all firefighters.

This year, eight new names have been added to the Firefighters' Memorial Grove, including our very own patron Rizzer (Raymond Winfield).

The plaques now display the names of 94 WA volunteer and career firefighters who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

April School Holiday's

What an awesome time we had during the April School Holidays.

During the first week, we had a visit from Nick from Infinity Skates, who always takes the time to come out and spend the day teaching our kids snazzy skateboard tricks.

On the 4th April we had Benny Mayhem and the Monster Music Truck set the mood and intensified the community's atmosphere with their Band. The day started out with their youth program, where the kids were taken on stage and had the chance to learn and get the feel of the musical instruments and chill out with the band. Then a Career lecture took place for the Adults who wanted to lean more about starting a band, it was really great to see our local guys showing an interest and taking the time to come down and have a chat. We then finished the night off with a 3hr concert. it was great to see everyone enjoying themselves, singing along, dancing and laughing .

On Monday 8 April we took an on country trip where we went from Yalgoo up to Chinaman Rock, Chinerby Flats and rest stopped at Melangata Station, where Jo and Ken was happy to supply some very yummy and delicious Lamb burgers to the starving Yalgoo gang. Ken then invited the group to have a look around at some aboriginal camp sites and water holes. He spoke about some of the history and artifacts that can be found on Melangata. Our next stop was at Jingemarra Station. The kids enjoyed themselves, and had a chance to cool down in the pool. We then returned back to Yalgoo, which triggered the kids wanting to spend more time out bush and away from town. Therefore during the second week we did a trip to the Golf course were the boys practiced their golf skills, afternoon trips to Jokers Tunnel and Three Deckers.

Seniors Morning Tea

Our seniors have been invited to Melanagata Station but due to covid going round town we have to postpone the visit.

Mother's Day Raffle

Ian Scott was called in to draw the Mother's Day Raffle which was held at 3pm on the 10th May 2024. Being said, congratulation is going out to Lennell Walley winning 1st prize and Rhiannon Hodder winning both 2nd and 3rd prizes. We have made $414 from the raffle sales which will go towards a Father's Day Raffle.

A big thank you goes out to Stan at the Yalgoo Hotel for donating the $100 dinner for two and also to Ivonne and Raul at the Yalgoo General Store for donating the Pure Simplicity Planet Earth Gift Basket.

ANZAC 2024

I know waking up at 5.30am is not for everyone, but seeing those who took the time to do so I salute you.

The fact that we had a little over 30 people attend this year's ANZAC dawn service was amazing, and more amazing we had kids attend which was very good to see.

A big Thank you to my helpers, Desmond Hodder, Jonelle Reece and Diane Hodder for helping set up and cooking the yummy breaky the food was great.

FAIRGAME

On the 5th through to the 8th of May we had Sophia and her team from Fairgame come out for their yearly visit.

For those who don't know them, Fairgame is a non-for-profit organisation, with a vision to create an equitable, healthier and sustainable Australia, by delivering unique health and fitness programs and recycled sports equipment to remote and underserviced communities.

Their objective is to empower communities to improve the health and wellbeing of all people through meaningful partnerships, consultation and the co-design and delivery of culturally safe programs through:

- Combining physical and health education to improve long term health outcomes and reduce preventable disease
- Enhancing cultural awareness understanding and fostering relationships between young people from diverse backgrounds
- Reducing waste by extending the life of pre-loved sports equipment
- Collaborating to build sustainable and strategic funding partnerships to ensure programs are accessible and well resourced.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA CENTRE FOR RURAL HEALTH

Amy Hall and Nerina Fernandez are 4th Year Curtin Occupational Therapy students who are spending every Thursday this term at Yalgoo Primary School. Occupational Therapist work with people of all ages to help people achieve meaningful and important daily activities.

They are practicing their skills interacting and playing with children as well as helping out teachers and students at the school. Some of the things they are working on with the school students are

- Improving hand strength and coordination for handwriting, cutting and independence in everyday activities
- Working on resilience of students especially giving challenging tasks a go
- Working on social skills like turn taking and following the rules of the game.

So far the students have loved the visits and the school children and teachers have really made them feel welcome and part of the community.

3G NETWORK SHUTDOWN

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR YOU IN YALGOO

Your mobile device must support VoLTE voice calling to make voice calls, and support VoLTE emergency calling to make an emergency calls to 000.

- If you have a device that can only use 3G, you won't be able to connect to Telstra's network after 31 August 2024.
- If your mobile device doesn't have Voice over LTE (VoLTE) technology, even if it uses 4G data, it will not be able to make voice calls on our network after 31 August 2024.
- Not all VoLTE enabled devices support emergency VoLTE calling, meaning they will not be able to make an emergency call to 000 once 3G closes.
- If we contacted you about this, your device is affected. Without taking the recommended action you won't be able to connect to a network after 31 August 2024.

Try the SMS device checker tool.

We are seeking Aboriginal people with cultural knowledge to join a new reference group to provide cultural advice and guidance to the Dandjoo Bidi-Ak Court.

We want to hear your views on justice matters affecting Aboriginal families attending the Protection and Care Court, as well as family violence issues in Aboriginal Communities.

There will be six meetings held over 12 months. Members receive nominal payment for attendance and reasonable travel expenses. Applicants must be at least 18 years old.

FOR ALL DOG OWNERS

Just a reminder to local residents and new commers to Yalgoo, the Shire of Yalgoo will be issuing FINES of over $200 dollars for every dog being in a public place without a leash.

Please exercise your dogs at the racecourse or oval and ensure you clean up after them.

YALGOO HERITAGE TRAIL

INTRODUCTION

There is ample circumstantial evidence that the area around Yalgoo was used by Aborigines many centuries before European settlement.

During good season, the countryside is lush with grass and seeds, and the surrounding rocky hills are abound with game. The aboriginal word for the word blood in the local dialect is Yalgo.

Late in 1892, a shepherd named Pearce led a prospecting party from Mingenew to the site of what is now known as the Emerald Reward Claim. Although 1890-92 were bad drought years for the squatters, the discovery of gold and good summer rains ensured that Yalgoo was firmly placed on the map.

In 1896 the Geraldton Express Murchison Telegraph newspaper reported as follows: "Yalgoo is booming and several wealthy English and foreign syndicates have invested capital. Machinery arrives daily. There are 12 stores, 2 saddlers, 2 butchers, 3 bakers, 2 cordial manufacturers, 3 blacksmiths, 2 hairdressers, 2 tent makers, a chemist, watchmaker, bootmaker, livery stables, State School and Miners a police station, wardens quarters and courthouse under construction, also 4 hotels and 3 under construction".

The population by 1900 in the Yalgoo townsite was 200 with 1300 in the district, the majority engaged in the mining industry. Around the turn of the century, however, mining started a steady decline, poor shows, drought and occasional typhoid outbreaks - saw the closure of several mines.

1. Yalgoo Railway Station

Plesse Street

The railway precinct is on the Register of Heritage Places of Western Australia. The first train arrived in Yalgoo in July 1896. Despite local protest, the Murchison Line closed in 1978. In 1983, the station was vested in the Shire of Yalgoo, who carried out its restoration with extensive community assistance. It re-opened as the Yalgoo Sporting Complex in 1994. It is the home of the Yalgoo Cup race day, an event dating back to 1898.

2. Pioneer Store

Gibbons Street

Thomas Pidgeon established the general store and bakery in 1894. He eventually sold the business in 1915, and with a variety of owners and services, the business has operated continuously to the present.

3. Solomans Residence & Store

These remains are associated to Solomon Lowms, J.P. who operated the general store.

On 13th February 1903, Australia's first parcel bomb (disguised in a round wax matches box) was delivered to Yalgoo's Post Office, addressed to Lowms. Lowms opened the package at the Post Office counter and the explosion blew off his hand.

He continued single handed (in both meanings of the word) with his plan to build a stone cottage next to the store, but never completed the task before his death in 1921. He is buried in Lot 15 of the Yalgoo Cemetery.

4. Yalgoo Hotel

Gibbons Street

The Yalgoo Hotel is the only remaining hotel from the six hotels that flourished in the town during the late 1890's. Initially licensed as the Emerald Hotel in 1896, it was renamed the Railway Hotel before becoming the Yalgoo Hotel in the 1960's. The original building burnt to the ground in 1954. While the hotel was being rebuilt, it operated continuously as a hotel from the stables.

5. Commercial Hotel

Corner of Gibbons & Queens Street

Established as the Yalgoo Hotel in 1896 by Viscount Avonmore, it was renamed the Commercial Hotel in 1927. It continued operations until 1947, when it was recycled as building materials at Warriadar Station, south of Yalgoo.

6. COURT HOUSE

Gibbons Street

From the mid 1890's, a brush humpy occupied this site and served as a court, post office, and registry for births, deaths, marriages and mining. The current building was then relocated from the mining community of Day Dawn (built 1904) and erected at Yalgoo in the same year for the cost of 242 pounds.

In 1972, it was opened as the Yalgoo Museum.

The lock up facility was built by James Dawson in 1896.

Prior to that, dangerous prisoners were chained to a post.

7. Coyne Store

Gibbons Store

Peter Coyne arrived in Yalgoo in 1915, and by 1923 he owned a precinct of shops. In 1926 he introduced the first hand pumped petrol bowser to Yalgoo. He eventually retired to Perth and died in 1952.

8. Police Station
Gibbons Street

Yalgoo has had a continuous police presence since February, 1895 when, Constable Fred Fox established a police camp. Initially prisoners were chained to a post in the police camp. These police station quarters and lock up were built in 1895. With few alterations, the station remained in use until 1982.

9. Jack Nevills Store

Corner Gibbons & Henty Street - Private residence, view from street.

The legendary Jack Nevill settled in Yalgoo in 1916, operating a store from 1924 to 1973. He resided in Yalgoo for 66 years, and served on the Roads Board or Shire Council for a total of 56 years.

10. Old Club Hotel Site

Cnr Gibbons & Selwyn St - Private residence, view from street

In 1894, Walter Moxon, one of the prospectors who made the first discovery of gold at Yalgoo, built a stone hotel on this site known as the Yalgoo Hotel. The hotel licence was revoked in 1924 and the building was used as a private residence.

In 1954, the then owner Ronald Ernest Hamilton, using stone from the old hotel built a private house one of the first modern houses to be built in Yalgoo for many years. In 1960, the Native Welfare Department converted it to a home for Aboriginal children who attended the Yalgoo State School. It was renamed Warramboe House. It served this purpose until 1980.

In 1982, it was transferred to the Police Department for use as a staff residence.

11. Miners Institute

Selwyn Street

Established in the 1890's, the Institute was considered one of the best buildings in Yalgoo. As a public meeting space, it was functional through to 1956 when the Yalgoo Hall and Shire offices were opened.

Miners Institute

Selwyn Street

12. Anglican Church

Selwyn Street

The Anglican community of Yalgoo has participated in church services from 1895. Holy Trinity was erected by Messrs. Millars' Karri and Jarrah Company. It was officially opened by Bishop Riley on 14th August 1912.

13. Cumberland Hotel

Corner Shamrock & Selwyn Street

The hotel was established in 1895 initially as a tent hotel. It was originally called the Miners Rest. It eventually closed in 1938, with its building materials recycled to construct a hotel in Agnew. In 1952, the empty site was developed by the Yalgoo Road Board into a children's playground.

14. Yalgoo School

Henty Street

The first school in Yalgoo was established in Selwyn Street with 35 Students in 1897. Following a severe flood, a new school was built on this site in 1899. The stunning mural was added to the school in 1999 through a student art initiative.

15. Emerald Hotel

Henty Street

This was Yalgoo's first licensed wayside inn, established in 1893. When the town was gazetted in 1896, the hotel was deemed outside the town boundary, and hence not included on the town plan. In 1896, the then licensee Arthur Hanlon closed this building and transferred the name to a new hotel building, which is the site of the present Yalgoo Hotel. A unique feature of the hotel was its roof of flattened fuel tins.

16. Site of Old Tent Hospital

Henty Street

The original hospital in Yalgoo was a collection of simple canvas structures. It operated from 1896 - 1900. There was a progressive change from tents to tin buildings on this site.

17. Site of old graves

Over the hill west end of Henty Street

Typhoid Fever was a major health problem in Yalgoo during the early 1890's. These graves are of typhoid victims - Sydney Abrahamson (Assistant Postmaster) William McBride (Clerk of Courts) and Peter Hamilton. Prior to the establishment of the Yalgoo Cemetery in 1896, this was obviously a popular grave site. At least 10 other graves have been identified in nearby proximity.

18. Dominica Convent Chapel

Henty Street

Built during 1921/22, this is the smallest church designed by the renowned priest and architect Father John Cyril Hawes, who was parish priest for the Murchison Goldfields and Mid West from 1915-1938. This inter-war Romanesque style masonry chapel with a terracotta tiled roof & timber framed bell tower is one of the 23 remaining buildings designed and built by Hawes. Following the closure of the convent and its school in 1949, the chapel fell into despair. In 1981, the Shire of Yalgoo reopened the restored Chapel.

19. Site of Old Emerald Hotel

Henty Street

20. Catholic Church

Henty Street

The original Catholic Church, the Holy Saviour was built of corrugated iron and timber in Gothic style and opened in 1909. A priest's house was built directly behind. All these buildings were demolished in a storm in 1984. The current church, St Finbarrs was transported from Mullewa to the same site in 1987.

21. Site of Shire Office

Shamrock Street

Originally a community Progress Association conducted the affairs of Yalgoo. In July 1896, a Road Board was established which covered an area of 22,000 sq kms and a population of 2,300 people. Initially it met in the Miner's Institute. In 1902, its first office was built in Gibbons Street at a cost of 304 pounds. In 1956, it was decided to establish this Shire Hall and Office. This building was brought from Wiluna where it had served for 34 Years as a miners club. The original office / library was demolished in a storm in 1984. In 1961, the Yalgoo Road Board became the Shire of Yalgoo.

Dog bite

See fact sheets on:

- severe bleeding
- shock

Signs of wound infection

- increased pain and soreness of the wound or wound area
- increased temperature (warmth) around the wound area
- increased swelling and redness of the wound and surrounding area
- pus oozing from the wound
- fever (if the infection persists)
- swelling and tenderness of the lymph glands
- tracking or red streaks leading away from the wound.

What to do

- 1 Follow DRSABCD.
- 2 Wash and clean the wound with soap and water.
- 3 Apply a sterile dressing.
- 4 Monitor for signs of infection.
- 5 Seek medical aid if necessary.

If the bite has resulted in a severely bleeding wound:

- 1 Follow DRSABCD. Call Triple Zero (000) for an ambulance.
- 2 Apply gloves if available. Remove or cut the patient's clothing to expose the wound.
- 3 Apply firm, direct and continuous pressure on the bleeding wound – initially with your hands until the bleeding stops. The patient or a bystander can do this.
- 4 Apply a pad or dressing in or directly over the wound and apply firm, direct and continuous pressure until the bleeding stops.
- 5 Once bleeding is controlled secure the pad by bandaging firmly, ensuring the pad remains directly over the wound. Observe for any further bleeding.
- 6 Manage the patient for shock. Do not give the patient anything to eat or drink.
- 7 Continue to monitor the patient whilst waiting for medical aid.

In a medical emergency call Triple Zero (000)

About the settlement of the Western Australia Stolen Wages Class Action

Mr Mervyn Street brought a case in the Federal Court against the Western Australian Government on behalf of all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples who weren't paid all their wages or money between 1936 and 1972.

The Western Australian Government has agreed to a settlement of the case in which it will pay up to $180.4 million (depending on how many people register), which the Court will need to approve before any money is paid out.

A detailed notice giving information about the proposed settlement has been published and can be obtained using the contact details below.

What do you need to register for the settlement?

If you are part of the class action and want to get a payment from the settlement, you need to complete and send in a registration form by 30 June 2024.

You are part of the class action and able to register if:

- you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person born before 9 June 1962;
- between 11 December 1936 and 9 June 1972 you worked in Western Australia and worked at some time for little or no wages;

OR

- you are representing a family member who qualifies and has since passed away (if you are their spouse (husband/wife/partner – married or defacto) or child).

If you don't want to claim compensation, you don't need to do anything. But you will still be part of the case, and you will lose your legal rights if the settlement is approved.

If you want to find out more about the case, the settlement or ask for a registration form, you can:

- Call Shine Lawyers on 1800 976 150
- Email Shine Lawyers at wastolenwages@shine.com.au
- Go to shine.com.au/stolenwageswa
- Come to an information meeting at a town near you. You can call Shine Lawyers or visit the website to see the schedule of meetings.

Elder Rights WA

FACT SHEET

This fact sheet has information about Elder Rights WA

What is Elder Rights WA?

Elder Rights WA (ERWA) is a holistic legal service for seniors and the aged based in the Civil Law Division of Legal Aid WA.

Our legal team provides legal advice, assistance and representation on certain types of legal matters and our social work team provides a range of tailored social work support in assisting clients in dealing with social, physical and mental challenges.

Who can use our service?

Our clients are people who are 65 years and older and First Nations and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse clients who are 55 years and older.

We can also provide information and referrals to "third parties" such as adult children or carers of the older person. However, we will not provide advice to third parties in most cases.

Who provides the Elder Rights WA service?

Lawyers and social workers with specialist experience in laws and issues that affect older Western Australians.

Our Cost

Elder Rights WA provides free legal advice.

"Our team of lawyers and social workers provide a state-wide service for vulnerable seniors who are experiencing certain types of legal problems"

Where is the Elder Rights WA service located?

Our team is primarily based in Perth, with the state-wide service also accessible through 9 regional Legal Aid WA offices, as well as a network of 16 Virtual Offices in metropolitan Perth and the regions.

We also have an Elder Rights WA lawyer from Peel Community Legal Services who provides our services in the Peel Region, as Peel has one of the highest proportion of seniors in WA.

We provide advice by telephone, virtual office, face to face and through community outreach.

This fact sheet contains information only. It is not legal advice. If you have a legal problem, you should speak to a lawyer. Legal Aid WA aims to provide accurate information but does not accept responsibility if it is not.

You are welcome to copy, use and share the information from our website, including our resources and publications, if you are doing so for non-commercial or non-profit purposes. You must make it clear the content was created by Legal Aid WA.

What types of legal matters does Elder Rights WA cover?

Legal advice and information on matters relating to planning for the future, including:

- Enduring Powers of Attorney
- Enduring Powers of Guardianship
- Advance Health Directives
- Wills

Note: While our service does not prepare or write these documents, the advice provided at our service is very valuable in helping our clients to make appropriate decisions.

Other matters we can give advice about include:

- Loans given to adult children or others
- Money or debts owed by clients
- "Granny flat" arrangements or other shared living arrangements
- Problems arising from living arrangements, including when adult children move in and refuse to leave
- Guarantors for loans/ mortgages for adult children
- Violence, including physical, psychological, emotional and sexual abuse
- Guardianship and Administration matters at the State Administrative Tribunal
- Voluntary Assisted Dying laws

Other services include:

- Representation in certain Guardianship and Administration matters in the State Administrative Tribunal
- Information and community legal education
- Referrals to specialist units within Legal Aid WA including Family Dispute Resolution Services and Domestic Violence Legal Unit

How can I access the Elder Rights WA service?

To refer clients to the service or to request an appointment with a lawyer, please email:

ElderRightsWA@legalaid.wa.gov.au or call the Legal Aid WA Infoline on 1300 650 579.

To find out more about Elder Rights WA you can visit the Legal Aid WA website: www.legalaid.wa.gov.au.

The Legal Aid WA website has information, videos and self-help guides on a range of legal topics.

If we cannot advise or assist on a particular issue, we may refer you to an appropriate service.

What is elder abuse?

This fact sheet has information on elder abuse and how Legal Aid WA can help.

What is elder abuse?

Everyone has the right to feel safe and be treated with respect. Unfortunately, some people do not feel safe and experience violence or abuse from someone else.

If an older person is experiencing violence or abuse, this is called elder abuse.

Elder abuse can include:

- » physical violence,
- » financial abuse,
- » emotional or psychological abuse,
- » social isolation,
- » sexual abuse, and
- » neglect.

Everyone has the right to feel safe and be treated with respect.

Who can elder abuse be from?

Elder abuse can be from a partner, another family member, neighbour, carer, someone who lives in your home or residential facility, or someone in a position of trust.

“ If an older person is experiencing violence or abuse, this is called elder abuse. ”

What is physical violence?

Physical violence is when someone hurts you physically.

For example: if someone slaps, pushes, hits or physically restrains you.

What is financial abuse?

Financial abuse is when someone uses your money without your permission.

Financial abuse includes:

- » someone selling your property without your permission,
- » someone forcing you to sign things you do not understand, and
- » someone taking control of your bank accounts.

If someone pressures you to give them money, this is also financial abuse.

This fact sheet contains information only. It is not legal advice. If you have a legal problem, you should speak to a lawyer. Legal Aid WA aims to provide accurate information but does not accept responsibility if it is not.

What is emotional or psychological abuse?

Emotional or psychological abuse is when someone calls you names, swears or shouts at you, intimidates or humiliates you.

It includes threats to harm you or your pets.

What is social isolation?

Social isolation is when someone refuses to let you go out and do things.

It includes stopping you from having contact with your friends, grandchildren, family members, support services, culture, and religion.

What is neglect?

Neglect is when someone is meant to take care of you but doesn't give you proper food, clothing, healthcare, personal care or shelter.

Neglect can be intentional or unintentional.

Legal Aid WA has a specialist service for older Western Australians experiencing elder abuse.

How can Legal Aid WA help?

It can be difficult to talk about these things if they are happening to you.

However, there are many services that can support and help you.

Legal Aid WA has a specialist service for older Western Australians experiencing elder abuse, called Elder Rights WA

Elder Rights WA operates from the Perth office at Legal Aid WA.

Advice can be provided by phone, face to face and through community outreach.

Lawyers with specialist experience in the laws that affect older Western Australians provide the Elder Rights WA service.

There is no cost in receiving advice from a lawyer at Elder Rights WA.

You can access Elder Rights WA by calling Legal Aid WA's Infoline on 1300 650 579.

You can also email: ElderRightsWA@legalaid.wa.gov.au

10 TIPS TO HELP YOU STAY MENTALLY HEALTHY

Reach out, connect and be a friend

Connect with people who bring out your best self and enrich your life. The quality of our personal relationships has a great effect on our wellbeing. Put time, effort and energy into building strong relationships and reap the rewards.

See the funny side of life

Laughter is a wonderful medicine. Life isn't all work and no play. We get stuck in patterns and sometimes need to break out and ask ourselves – when did I last have a good laugh?

Embrace nature

Being amongst nature is great for our soul, whether it's the bush, beach or backyard. Feeling connected to the great outdoors offers a sense of freedom, fresh air and adventure, plus the soothing natural elements around us are healing for weary minds.

Learn something new

Embarking on a challenge to meet a goal or learning a new skill or hobby, whether at work or at play, improves your mental fitness and may be a great way to meet like-minded people. Learning is achieving and with it comes a great sense of accomplishment and improved self esteem.

Organise your day

Being disorganised can build stress and anxiety. You may be able to avoid some of the triggers and learn to prepare for or manage others. A balanced, organised lifestyle can help you manage stress better. Take time to organise and plan your life to avoid being constantly in a frenzy.

Have an early night

 When your car runs low on fuel – you fill it up. When you run low on fuel make sure you do the same. Sleep is a great reviver. Late nights drain the energy reserves. Top up whenever you can.

Go for a walk and move your body

 There is no better medicine than exercise. It's not always easy to put on the joggers and head out for a walk - it takes motivation. But once you've made that effort, the reward is huge. Exercise clears your head and places you outside the environment that is causing you concern. Plus it's good for both mind and body!

Eat healthy

 Rest and exercise have limited use if you aren't eating well. Take time to plan your diet and cook meals that are nutritious and full of energy. Rushing around almost always results in "fast food" choices. Cooking can also be a therapeutic and creative process - you can get your kids involved too!

Take time out

Allow yourself some unfocused time each day to refresh; for example, let your mind wander, daydream or simply watch the clouds go by for a while. It's OK to schedule 'do nothing' to your day! You deserve some peaceful and calming time to yourself.

Ask for support

This can be as simple as asking a friend to babysit while you have some time out or speaking to your doctor (GP) about where to find a counsellor, peer support group or community mental health service. Everyone's life journey has bumpy bits and the people around you can help. If you don't get the support you need first off, whether it's from a professional, friend or family member, keep asking until you do.

EASY CHEAP RECIPES

Versatile Chicken & Turkey
One-Pot Chicken Bake

CARD 11 GROUP 9

One-Pot Chicken Bake

Preparation: 10 mins

Cooking: 1½–1¾ hrs

In this recipe a can of soup is used to create the basic sauce, making it a simple one to prepare.

For 4 servings

1.5–1.75 kg (3–3½ lb) chicken pieces
50 g (2 oz) butter
garlic salt
black pepper
1 tsp paprika
275 g (10 oz) can condensed cream of mushroom soup
250 ml (8 fl oz) single cream
225 g (8 oz) frozen peas
2 tbsp sherry (optional)

Preparation

1 Heat oven to 180C (350F/Gas 4). Lightly brown chicken pieces in butter in a large frying-pan.

2 Place chicken pieces in a large ovenproof dish in one layer. Sprinkle with garlic salt, black pepper and paprika.

3 Whisk together soup and cream and pour over chicken. Cover with foil and bake in oven for 1½ hrs, or until chicken is tender. Test seasoning, adding more pepper if necessary.

4 Stir in peas, then bake for a further 10–15 mins to heat through. Stir in sherry, if using, just before serving.

Variations

For a more festive dish, use skinned chicken breasts and sprinkle with toasted slivered almonds just before serving.

Good served with: Cooked rice or noodles and a green salad.
