LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORDINARY ELECTION
CLOSE OF ENROLMENTS
Shire of Yalgoo
ROLL CLOSE: 5:00 PM Friday, 22 August 2025

You may be eligible to be enrolled to vote in the local government elections on 18 October 2025 if you live in or are an owner or occupier of rateable property in the Shire of Yalgoo.

Residents

You are automatically enrolled to vote if you are on the State Electoral Roll as at 5:00 PM Friday, 22 August 2025. If you are not already on the State Electoral Roll and meet the eligibility criteria, or if you have changed address recently, you must complete an enrolment form.

Enrolment Forms

You can enrol or update your details online, or download an enrolment form, via the Western Australian Electoral Commission website (www.elections.wa.gov.au/enrol). Forms are also available from the Australian Electoral Commission (www.aec.gov.au). Enrolments and updates must be completed and received by 5:00 PM Friday, 22 August 2025.

Non-Resident Owners and Occupiers

If you are a non-resident owner or occupier of rateable property in the Shire of Yalgoo and are on the State or Commonwealth Electoral Roll, you are eligible to enrol to vote. Owners of land who were on the last Local Government roll continue to retain that status until they cease to own the rateable property to which the enrolment relates. Occupiers do not have continuous enrolment and should contact the Shire of Yalgoo to confirm their enrolment status. To be eligible to enrol as an occupier, you will need to have a right of continuous occupation under a lease, tenancy agreement or other legal instrument for at least the next three months following the date of the application to enrol and have paid rent for at least the prescribed amount.

Joint Owners and Occupiers

If a rateable property is owned or occupied by more than two people, a majority of the owners/occupiers may nominate two persons from amongst themselves who are on either the State or Commonwealth Electoral Roll, to enrol as owner/occupier electors.

Corporations

A body corporate that owns or occupies rateable property may nominate two people who are officers of the body corporate that are on either the State or Commonwealth Electoral Roll to enrol as owner/occupier electors.

Enrolment Forms – Non-Resident Owners and Occupiers Only

Enrolment forms can be obtained from local governments and must be lodged with the Chief Executive Officer by 5:00 PM Friday, 22 August 2025. Further information can be obtained from the Shire of Yalgoo.

COMMUNITY HALL RENO UNDATE

Here's a little update on the Community Hall Reno....

As most of you all know Peter Cekas and his team have been hard at work for the past year or so upgrading our community hall.

Walls, doors and flooring have been ripped out and replaced, new walls have been put up on the outside almost ready for painting, there is still a lot of work to be done on the inside, But I must say our town hall is finally getting the love and care its deserves and I cannot wait to see it finished.

NAIDOC DAY

What an unforgettable day, filled with culture, connection, and community spirit! From the early morning glow of the campfire lit by Pop Patrick at 7 am, to the joy and laughter of children having their faces painted by the wonderful Yalgoo Shire Admin Team, NAIDOC Day 2025 was a beautiful reminder of what makes our community so special.

The morning kicked off with the mouthwatering aroma of bacon and eggs drifting through the crisp air as Miss Tamisha cooked her legendary breakfast of bacon, eggs, and tomatoes. A huge thank you to Clive from Bundawarra Station for generously donating the eggs, bacon and produce. We also deeply appreciate the Yalgoo Shire team and community members who gathered firewood and helped with equipment—your teamwork was incredible.

Throughout the morning, Miss Timara, Miss Phyliss, Miss Tamisha and a group of young community men, women and families worked together to prepare kangaroo meat and cook soft, fluffy damper (Miss Timara's recipe). It was heart-warming to see families sitting around the fire, sharing stories and laughter—a true celebration of generations coming together

After morning tea, the energy lifted even higher with the arrival of the Geraldton Sporting Aboriginal Corporation, who delivered an exciting sports program including soccer, basketball, and team games. Our students were thrilled—and it was wonderful to see parents and caregivers join in the fun too!

Lunch brought everyone together under the trees beside the campfire, where a feast of kangaroo stew, kebabs, tails, rissoles, rice, vegetables, and fresh damper was served. A special thank you to Edwina, one of our amazing school mums, for preparing the kangaroo tails with such care and skill.

To close the celebration, we were treated to stunning vanilla and chocolate NAIDOC cakes, lovingly prepared and donated by Jacqui Bradley and Chefs at 29Metals Golden Grove, and presented by our respected Elders—Pop Patrick, Charmaine, Gloria, and Phyliss. Beautifully decorated and deeply appreciated, they made the perfect sweet ending to a special day.

After lunch, students took part in creative arts and crafts activities, kindly facilitated by Elisha and the Shire Admin Team and Connect Blue team—making bookmarks, boomerangs, and wall art. It was lovely to see families sitting together, chatting and creating. Every child went home with a handmade creation, a goodies bag and a big smile.

Special thanks go to:

The amazing AIEOs, who shared traditional foods and cultural knowledge with generosity and pride

- The dedicated Yalgoo Primary School staff, for supporting and celebrating alongside our student
- And to the Yalgoo Shire, for your ongoing partnership and collaboration

Thank you to Mr Shane Love MLA, Alison and team, and the Yalgoo Shire CEO Ian Holland for attending our NAIDOC 2025 celebration. Your presence, support, and time spent connecting with our community made the day even more meaningful.

YALGOO FAMILY FUN DAY

Head to Yalgoo for all the family friendly fun, laughter and action

YALGOO HERITAGE TRAIL

INTRODUCTION

There is ample circumstantial evidence that the area around Yalgoo was used by Aborigines many centuries before European settlement.

During good season, the countryside is lush with grass and seeds, and the surrounding rocky hills are abound with game. The aboriginal word for the word blood in the local dialect is Yalgo.

Late in 1892, a shepherd named Pearce led a prospecting party from Mingenev to the site of what is now known as the Emerald Reward Claim. Although 1890-92 were bad drought years for the squatters, the discovery of gold and good summer rains ensured that Yalgoo was firmly placed on the map.

In 1896 the Geraldton Express Murchison Telegraph newspaper reported as follows: "Yalgoo is booming and several wealthy English and foreign syndicates have invested capital. Machinery arrives daily. There are 12 stores, 2 saddlers, 2 butchers, 3 bakers, 2 cordial manufacturers, 3 blacksmiths, 2 hairdressers, 2 tent makers, a chemist, watchmaker, bootmaker, livery stables, State School and Miners a police station, wardens quarters and courthouse under construction, also 4 hotels and 3 under construction".

The population by 1900 in the Yalgoo townsite was 200 with 1300 in the district, the majority engaged in the mining industry. Around the turn of the century, however, mining started a steady decline, poor shows, drought and occasional typhoid outbreaks - saw the closure of several mines.

1. Yalgoo Railway Station

Plesse Street

The railway precinct is on the Register of Heritage Places of Western Australia. The first train arrived in Yalgoo in July 1896. Despite local protest, the Murchison Line closed in 1978. In 1983, the station was vested in the Shire of Yalgoo, who carried out its restoration with extensive community assistance. It re-opened as the Yalgoo Sporting Complex in 1994. It is the home of the Yalgoo Cup race day, an event dating back to 1898.

2. Pioneer Store

Gibbons Street

Thomas Pidgeon established the general store and bakery in 1894. He eventually sold the business in 1915, and with a variety of owners and services, the business has operated continuously to the present.

3. Solomans Residence & Store

These remains are associated to Solomon Lowms, J.P. who operated the general store.

On 13th February 1903, Australia's first parcel bomb (disguised in a round wax matches box) was delivered to Yalgoo's Post Office, addressed to Lowms. Lowms opened the package at the Post Office counter and the explosion blew off his hand.

He continued single handed (in both meanings of the word) with his plan to build a stone cottage next to the store, but never completed the task before his death in 1921. He is buried in Lot 15 of the Yalgoo Cemetery.

4. Yalgoo Hotel

Gibbons Street

The Yalgoo Hotel is the only remaining hotel from the six hotels that flourished in the town during the late 1890's. Initially licensed as the Emerald Hotel in 1896, it was renamed the Railway Hotel before becoming the Yalgoo Hotel in the 1960's. The original building burnt to the ground in 1954. While the hotel was being rebuilt, it operated continuously as a hotel from the stables.

5. Commercial Hotel

Cornor of Gibbons & Queens Street

Established as the Yalgoo Hotel in 1896 by Viscount Avonmore, it was renamed the Commercial Hotel in 1927. It continued operations until 1947, when it was recycled as building materials at Warriedar Station, south of Yalgoo.

6. COURT HOUSE

Gibbons Street

From the mid 1890's, a brush humpy occupied this site and served as a court, post office, and registry for births, deaths, marriages and mining. The current building was then relocated from the mining community of Day Dawn (built 1904) and erected at Yalgoo in the same year for the cost of 242 pounds.

In 1972, it was opened as the Yalgoo Museum.

The lock up facility was built by James Dawson in 1896.

Prior to that, dangerous prisoners were chained to a post.

7. Coyne Store

Gibbons Store

Peter Coyne arrived in Yalgoo in 1915, and by 1923 he owned a precinct of shops. In 1926 he introduced the first hand pumped petrol bowser to Yalgoo. He eventually retired to Perth and died in 1952.

8. Police Station
Gibbons Street

Yalgoo has had a continuous police presence since February, 1895 when, Constable Fred Fox established a police camp. Initially prisoners were chained to a post in the police camp. These police station quarters and lock up were built in 1895. With few alterations, the station remained in use until 1982.

9. Jack Nevills Store

Corner Gibbons & Henry Street - Private residence, view from street.

The legendary Jack Nevill settled in Yalgoo in 1916, operating a store from 1924 to 1973. He resided in Yalgoo for 66 years, and served on the Roads Board or Shire Council for a total of 56 years.

10. Old Club Hotel Site

Cnr Gibbons & Selwyn St - Private residence, view from street

In 1894, Walter Moxon, one of the prospectors who made the first discovery of gold at Yalgoo, built a stone hotel on this site known as the Yalgoo Hotel. The hotel licence was revoked in 1924 and the building was used as a private residence.

In 1954, the then owner Ronald Ernest Hamilton, using stone from the old hotel built a private house one of the first modern houses to be built in Yalgoo for many years. In 1960, the Native Welfare Department converted it to a home for Aboriginal children who attended the Yalgoo State School. It was renamed Warramboos House. It served this purpose until 1980.

In 1982, it was transferred to the Police Department for use as a staff residence.

11. Miners Institute

Selwyn Street

Established in the 1890's, the Institute was considered one of the best buildings in Yalgoo. As a public meeting space, it was functional through to 1956 when the Yalgoo Hall and Shire offices were opened.

Miners Institute
Selwyn Street

12. Anglican Church

Selwyn Street

The Anglican community of Yalgoo has participated in church services from 1895. Holy Trinity was erected by Messrs. Millars' Karri and Jarrah Company. It was officially opened by Bishop Riley on 14th August 1912.

13. Cumberland Hotel

Corner Shamrock & Selwyn Street

The hotel was established in 1895 initially as a tent hotel. It was originally called the Miners Rest. It eventually closed in 1938, with its building materials recycled to construct a hotel in Agnew. In 1952, the empty site was developed by the Yalgoo Road Board into a children's playground.

14. Yalgoo School
Henry Street

The first school in Yalgoo was established in Selwyn Street with 35 Students in 1897. Following a severe flood, a new school was built on this site in 1899. The stunning mural was added to the school in 1999 through a student art initiative.

15. Emerald Hotel

Henry Street

This was Yalgoo's first licensed wayside inn, established in 1893. When the town was gazetted in 1896, the hotel was deemed outside the town boundary, and hence not included on the town plan. In 1896, the then licensee Arthur Hanlon closed this building and transferred the name to a new hotel building, which is the site of the present Yalgoo Hotel. A unique feature of the hotel was its roof of flattened fuel tins.

16. Site of Old Tent Hospital

Henry Street

The original hospital in Yalgoo was a collection of simple canvas structures. It operated from 1896 - 1900. There was a progressive change from tents to tin buildings on this site.

17. Site of old graves

Over the hill west end of Henry Street

Typhoid Fever was a major health problem in Yalgoo during the early 1890's. These graves are of typhoid victims - Sydney Abrahamson (Assistant Postmaster) William McBride (Clerk of Courts) and Peter Hamilton. Prior to the establishment of the Yalgoo Cemetery in 1896, this was obviously a popular grave site. At least 10 other graves have been identified in nearby proximity.

18. Dominica Convent Chapel

Henry Street

Built during 1921/22, this is the smallest church designed by the renowned priest and architect Father John Cyril Hawes, who was parish priest for the Murchison Goldfields and Mid West from 1915-1938. This inter-war Romanesque style masonry chapel with a terracotta tiled roof & timber framed bell tower is one of the 23 remaining buildings designed and built by Hawes. Following the closure of the convent and its school in 1949, the chapel fell into disrepair. In 1981, the Shire of Yalgoo reopened the restored Chapel.

19. Site of Old Emerald Hotel

Henry Street

20. Catholic Church

Henry Street

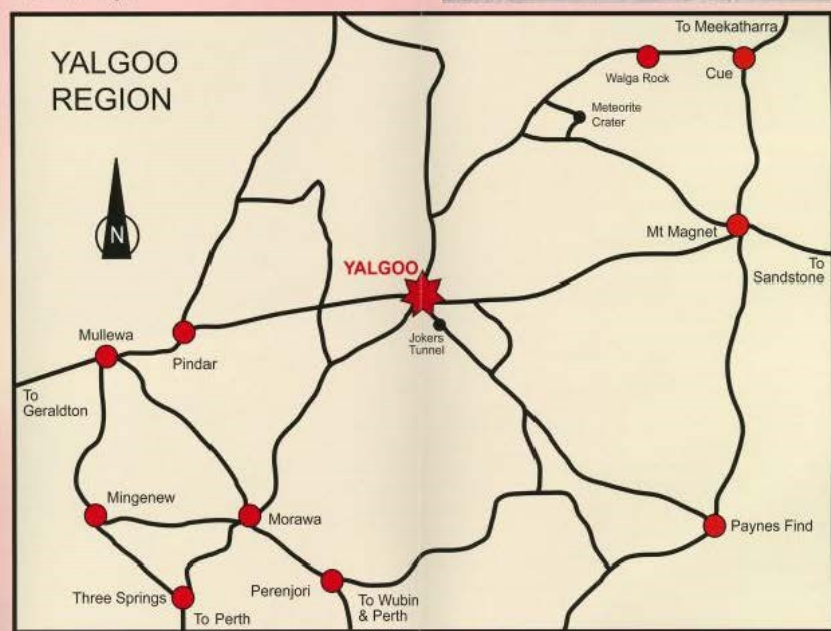

The original Catholic Church, the Holy Saviour was built of corrugated iron and timber in Gothic style and opened in 1909. A priest's house was built directly behind. All these buildings were demolished in a storm in 1984. The current church, St Finbarrs was transported from Mullewa to the same site in 1987.

21. Site of Shire Office

Shamrock Street

Originally a community Progress Association conducted the affairs of Yalgoo. In July 1896, a Road Board was established which covered an area of 22,000 sq kms and a population of 2,300 people. Initially it met in the Miner's Institute. In 1902, its first office was built in Gibbons Street at a cost of 304 pounds. In 1956, it was decided to establish this Shire Hall and Office. This building was brought from Wiluna where it had served for 34 Years as a miners club. The original office / library was demolished in a storm in 1984. In 1961, the Yalgoo Road Board became the Shire of Yalgoo.

THE HON MELISSA PRICE MP

Federal Member for Durack
Shadow Minister for Cyber Security
Shadow Minister for Science

The House of Representatives
'My First Speech' Competition 2025
5 August 2025

Federal Member for Durack, the Hon Melissa Price MP, is encouraging all Year 10, 11 and 12 students across the electorate to enter the 2025 My First Speech competition, officially launched yesterday by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Hon Milton Dick MP.

The annual national competition challenges high school students to step into the shoes of a newly elected Member of Parliament by writing and recording a 90 second speech on an issue they are passionate about. Entrants are encouraged to think creatively and critically about the topics that matter most to their communities.

"This is an exciting opportunity for our local Durack students to shine a national spotlight on the issues that are important to them," Ms Price said. "I believe the students who take part in this competition are our future leaders and I'm particularly keen to see regional, rural and remote voices from across Durack represented in this year's entries."

One winning entrant from each year group will be flown to Canberra, accompanied by a parent or guardian, to deliver their speech live at Parliament House. They will also take part in a specially designed program to deepen their understanding of how Australia's democracy works.

Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Hon Milton Dick MP, said, "One of my key priorities as Speaker has been to promote parliamentary education to students across the country. This competition is a great way for young people to learn about our democratic system and actively engage with the parliamentary process."

To learn more about the competition and to submit their entries, students can visit the competition website: <https://mfs.houseofrepresentatives.gov.au/>, or for any general inquiries please contact Ms Price's office at melissa.price.mp@aph.gov.au

The submission deadline for the competition is set for 11.59pm AEST on 15 September 2025.

CHICKEN AVOCADO ROLLS

What you need

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------|
| 1 cup of cooked chicken breast diced or shredded | 2 tablespoons of sour cream |
| 1 avocado pitted and diced | 1 tablespoon of lime juice |
| 1/4 cup of shredded cheddar cheese | A pinch of salt and pepper |
| 1/4 cup of diced tomato | Flour or corn tortillas |

Instructions

In a large bowl, add the cooked chicken, avocado, cheese, tomato, sour cream, and lime juice. Season with salt and pepper and stir with a spoon until everything is fully combined and the avocado is chunky and mashed.

Spread the mixture equally on each of the flour tortillas and roll them up tightly. Cut into slices and serve right away or refrigerate until ready to serve.

Enjoy hot or cold!

SLOPPY JOES

What you need

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Pack of buns of your choosing | 1 teaspoon of prepared yellow mustard |
| 1 pound of lean ground beef | 3/4 cup of ketchup |
| 1/4 cup of chopped onion | 3 teaspoons of brown sugar |
| 1/4 cup of chopped green bell pepper | A pinch of salt and pepper |
| 1/2 teaspoon of garlic powder | |

Instructions

In a medium skillet over medium heat, brown the ground beef, onion, and green pepper; drain off liquids.

Stir in the garlic powder, mustard, ketchup, and brown sugar, then mix thoroughly.

Reduce heat, and simmer for 30 minutes. Scoop onto buns, season with salt and pepper, and serve.

Elder Rights WA

FACT SHEET

This fact sheet has information about Elder Rights WA

What is Elder Rights WA?

Elder Rights WA (ERWA) is a holistic legal service for seniors and the aged based in the Civil Law Division of Legal Aid WA.

Our legal team provides legal advice, assistance and representation on certain types of legal matters and our social work team provides a range of tailored social work support in assisting clients in dealing with social, physical and mental challenges.

Who can use our service?

Our clients are people who are 65 years and older and First Nations and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse clients who are 55 years and older.

We can also provide information and referrals to "third parties" such as adult children or carers of the older person. However, we will not provide advice to third parties in most cases.

Who provides the Elder Rights WA service?

Lawyers and social workers with specialist experience in laws and issues that affect older Western Australians.

Our Cost

Elder Rights WA provides free legal advice.

"Our team of lawyers and social workers provide a state-wide service for vulnerable seniors who are experiencing certain types of legal problems"

Where is the Elder Rights WA service located?

Our team is primarily based in Perth, with the state-wide service also accessible through 9 regional Legal Aid WA offices, as well as a network of 16 Virtual Offices in metropolitan Perth and the regions.

We also have an Elder Rights WA lawyer from Peel Community Legal Services who provides our services in the Peel Region, as Peel has one of the highest proportion of seniors in WA.

We provide advice by telephone, virtual office, face to face and through community outreach.

This fact sheet contains information only. It is not legal advice. If you have a legal problem, you should speak to a lawyer. Legal Aid WA aims to provide accurate information but does not accept responsibility if it is not.

You are welcome to copy, use and share the information from our website, including our resources and publications, if you are doing so for non-commercial or non-profit purposes. You must make it clear the content was created by Legal Aid WA.

What types of legal matters does Elder Rights WA cover?

Legal advice and information on matters relating to planning for the future, including:

- Enduring Powers of Attorney
- Enduring Powers of Guardianship
- Advance Health Directives
- Wills

Note: While our service does not prepare or write these documents, the advice provided at our service is very valuable in helping our clients to make appropriate decisions.

Other matters we can give advice about include:

- Loans given to adult children or others
- Money or debts owed by clients
- "Granny flat" arrangements or other shared living arrangements
- Problems arising from living arrangements, including when adult children move in and refuse to leave
- Guarantors for loans/ mortgages for adult children
- Violence, including physical, psychological, emotional and sexual abuse
- Guardianship and Administration matters at the State Administrative Tribunal
- Voluntary Assisted Dying laws

Other services include:

- Representation in certain Guardianship and Administration matters in the State Administrative Tribunal
- Information and community legal education
- Referrals to specialist units within Legal Aid WA including Family Dispute Resolution Services and Domestic Violence Legal Unit

How can I access the Elder Rights WA service?

To refer clients to the service or to request an appointment with a lawyer, please email:

ElderRightsWA@legalaid.wa.gov.au

or call the Legal Aid WA Infoline on 1300 650 579.

To find out more about Elder Rights WA you can visit the Legal Aid WA website: www.legalaid.wa.gov.au.

The Legal Aid WA website has information, videos and self-help guides on a range of legal topics.

If we cannot advise or assist on a particular issue, we may refer you to an appropriate service.

What is elder abuse?

This fact sheet has information on elder abuse and how Legal Aid WA can help.

What is elder abuse?

Everyone has the right to feel safe and be treated with respect. Unfortunately, some people do not feel safe and experience violence or abuse from someone else.

If an older person is experiencing violence or abuse, this is called elder abuse.

Elder abuse can include:

- » physical violence,
- » financial abuse,
- » emotional or psychological abuse,
- » social isolation,
- » sexual abuse, and
- » neglect.

Everyone has the right to feel safe and be treated with respect.

Who can elder abuse be from?

Elder abuse can be from a partner, another family member, neighbour, carer, someone who lives in your home or residential facility, or someone in a position of trust.

“ If an older person is experiencing violence or abuse, this is called elder abuse. ”

What is physical violence?

Physical violence is when someone hurts you physically.

For example: if someone slaps, pushes, hits or physically restrains you.

What is financial abuse?

Financial abuse is when someone uses your money without your permission.

Financial abuse includes:

- » someone selling your property without your permission,
- » someone forcing you to sign things you do not understand, and
- » someone taking control of your bank accounts.

If someone pressures you to give them money, this is also financial abuse.

This fact sheet contains information only. It is not legal advice. If you have a legal problem, you should speak to a lawyer. Legal Aid WA aims to provide accurate information but does not accept responsibility if it is not.

What is emotional or psychological abuse?

Emotional or psychological abuse is when someone calls you names, swears or shouts at you, intimidates or humiliates you.

It includes threats to harm you or your pets.

What is social isolation?

Social isolation is when someone refuses to let you go out and do things.

It includes stopping you from having contact with your friends, grandchildren, family members, support services, culture, and religion.

What is neglect?

Neglect is when someone is meant to take care of you but doesn't give you proper food, clothing, healthcare, personal care or shelter.

Neglect can be intentional or unintentional.

Legal Aid WA has a specialist service for older Western Australians experiencing elder abuse.

How can Legal Aid WA help?

It can be difficult to talk about these things if they are happening to you.

However, there are many services that can support and help you.

Legal Aid WA has a specialist service for older Western Australians experiencing elder abuse, called Elder Rights WA

Elder Rights WA operates from the Perth office at Legal Aid WA.

Advice can be provided by phone, face to face and through community outreach.

Lawyers with specialist experience in the laws that affect older Western Australians provide the Elder Rights WA service.

There is no cost in receiving advice from a lawyer at Elder Rights WA.

You can access Elder Rights WA by calling Legal Aid WA's Infoline on 1300 650 579.

You can also email: ElderRightsWA@legalaid.wa.gov.au

To find out more about Elder Rights WA you can visit the Legal Aid WA website: www.legalaid.wa.gov.au.

DESERT BLUE CONNECT

IMPROVE YOUR MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING

10 TIPS TO HELP YOU STAY MENTALLY HEALTHY

Reach out, connect and be a friend

Connect with people who bring out your best self and enrich your life. The quality of our personal relationships has a great effect on our wellbeing. Put time, effort and energy into building strong relationships and reap the rewards.

See the funny side of life

Laughter is a wonderful medicine. Life isn't all work and no play. We get stuck in patterns and sometimes need to break out and ask ourselves – when did I last have a good laugh?

Embrace nature

Being amongst nature is great for our soul, whether it's the bush, beach or backyard. Feeling connected to the great outdoors offers a sense of freedom, fresh air and adventure, plus the soothing natural elements around us are healing for weary minds.

Learn something new

Embarking on a challenge to meet a goal or learning a new skill or hobby, whether at work or at play, improves your mental fitness and may be a great way to meet like-minded people. Learning is achieving and with it comes a great sense of accomplishment and improved self esteem.

Organise your day

Being disorganised can build stress and anxiety. You may be able to avoid some of the triggers and learn to prepare for or manage others. A balanced, organised lifestyle can help you manage stress better. Take time to organise and plan your life to avoid being constantly in a frenzy.

Have an early night

When your car runs low on fuel – you fill it up. When you run low on fuel make sure you do the same. Sleep is a great reviver. Late nights drain the energy reserves. Top up whenever you can.

Go for a walk and move your body

There is no better medicine than exercise. It's not always easy to put on the joggers and head out for a walk - it takes motivation. But once you've made that effort, the reward is huge. Exercise clears your head and places you outside the environment that is causing you concern. Plus it's good for both mind and body!

Eat healthy

Rest and exercise have limited use if you aren't eating well. Take time to plan your diet and cook meals that are nutritious and full of energy. Rushing around almost always results in "fast food" choices. Cooking can also be a therapeutic and creative process - you can get your kids involved too!

Ask for support

This can be as simple as asking a friend to babysit while you have some time out or speaking to your doctor (GP) about where to find a counsellor, peer support group or community mental health service. Everyone's life journey has bumpy bits and the people around you can help. If you don't get the support you need first off, whether it's from a professional, friend or family member, keep asking until you do.

Take time out

Allow yourself some unfocused time each day to refresh; for example, let your mind wander, daydream or simply watch the clouds go by for a while. It's OK to schedule 'do nothing' to your day! You deserve some peaceful and calming time to yourself.
